Referral Notice

Dear D

[REDACTED]

This letter refers to your Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal, filed with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Applicants for asylum must credibly establish that they have suffered past persecution or have a well-founded fear of future persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion, and that they merit a grant of asylum in the exercise of discretion.

Reason(s) for Ineligibility for Asylum:

For the reasons described below, USCIS has not found you eligible for asylum and has not granted your claim for asylum:

[REDACTED]

You have not established that any harm you experienced in the past, considering incidents both individually and cumulatively, amounts to persecution.

Future Persecution

[REDACTED]

You have not established that your government is unable or unwilling to protect you from the harm you fear.

Based on the above reason(s), your asylum application has been referred to an immigration judge for adjudication in removal proceedings before the U.S. Department of Justice, Executive Office for Immigration Review. This is not a denial of your asylum application. You may request that the immigration judge consider your asylum application, and you may amend your application when you appear before the immigration judge at the date and time listed on the attached charging document (Form I-862, Notice to Appear). The immigration judge will evaluate your asylum claim independently and is not required to rely on or follow the decision made by USCIS. This referral includes the derivative
